HMWC CPAs & BUSINESS ADVISORS DONATES FUNDS TO FIVE COMMUNITY SERVICE NON-PROFITS

TUSTIN, CA, JANUARY 3, 2012 – In the spirit of the holiday season, HMWC CPAs & Business Advisors in Tustin has provided $2,500 in charitable donations to five local non-profit organizations. The organizations are: Blind Children’s Learning Center; Boys and Girls Club of Tustin; Family Promise of Orange County; Orange County Rescue Mission; and Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County. Each of these non-profits does an excellent job in helping Orange County citizens and HMWC CPAs & Business Advisors is proud to support them.

The Blind Children’s Learning Center (www.blindkids.org) has developed a comprehensive, alternative program allowing children to not only thrive blind, but also enter the mainstream schools and world around them. The organization is the only one of its kind in Southern California that addresses the needs of the blind, visually impaired and children with multiple disabilities from birth through high school.

The Boys and Girls Club of Tustin (www.bgctustin.org) is a non-profit youth development center dedicated to promoting the social and educational growth, health and character development of Tustin youth. It focuses on inspiring and enabling all young people to realize their full potential as productive, responsible, and caring citizens.

Family Promise of Orange County (www.familypromiseorangecounty.org) is an interfaith hospitality network of congregations that provide emergency shelter, hospitality, and services to homeless families, where the goal is to eliminate their homelessness and place each family in a home of their own in about two months. Through mobilizing community faith groups, Family Promise of Orange County works to assist homeless families to achieve sustainable independence, while offering hope, compassion, and preserving individual dignity.

The Orange County Rescue Mission (www.rescuemission.org) is a non-profit organization whose mission is to “minister the love of Jesus Christ to the least, the last, and the lost of our Community through the provision of assistance in the areas of guidance, counseling, education, job training, shelter, food, clothing, health care and independent living communities.”

Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County (www.feedoc.org) is working to eliminate hunger in Orange County. It solicits and coordinates donations, grants, fundraising, food drives, food rescue, harvesting and volunteers to supply food, education and advocacy for the hungry through non-profit partners and direct feeding programs. Since 1983, the Food Bank has provided more than 272 million pounds of donated and surplus food to local charities.
