LEVINSTEIN NOMINATED FOR 2014 “WOMEN IN BUSINESS AWARDS”

TUSTIN, CA, JUNE 16, 2014 – Susan Levinstein, partner at HMWC CPAs & Business Advisors in Tustin, has been nominated for the 2014 “Women in Business Awards,” sponsored by the Orange County Business Journal. This year’s awards, which will be held tomorrow, June 17th, is the 20th anniversary of this event, honoring Orange County’s exceptional business and professional women.

Levinstein and HMWC were recognized in 2012 for being the first Orange County CPA firm to start a practice focused on women-owned businesses.

The firm recognized that their women-owned business clients face a number of unique challenges, so HMWC decided to develop a practice specifically devoted to their needs. The practice is staffed by CPAs and other highly credentialed advisors, both female and male, to best serve clients. Professionals in the “Women-Owned Business Practice” offer assistance on a wide range of business issues including finance, accounting, banking, sales management, employees, and customer and vendor relations.
